Welcome! On behalf of the City of Orlando, it is my pleasure to welcome you to our community for the World Ballet Competition, which is celebrating its 14th year in our city.

Your event is set in one of the country's most dynamic cities. With a vibrant dining scene, first-rate hotels, sports and entertainment venues, endless shopping options and many outdoor activities, Orlando has so much to offer. I invite you to explore our community during your visit. You probably know that Orlando is America's most-visited destination, but there is so much more.

We're proud that our city is diverse, inclusive and welcoming, which is reflected in our arts and cultural offerings. Orlando is filled with theaters, museums, galleries and festivals. From performances at our state-of-the-art Dr. Phillips Center for the Performing Arts, to thought-provoking collections at The Mennello Museum of American Art, the arts come alive in our community.

I hope you have a wonderful time at the World Ballet Competition, but also take some time to discover the other half of Orlando!

Sincerely,

Buddy Dyer
Mayor
