POLICY:

AS DEFINED BY CITY CODE

Section 48.04 of the City Code states: "Every Police Officer, except plainclothes officers and such other officers and employees as the Chief of Police may designate, shall wear uniforms, badges and insignia of office, and carry such arms as the City Council may from time to time prescribe."

AS DEFINED BY THE CHIEF OF POLICE

It shall be the policy of this Department to maintain a uniform standard of dress and professional appearance for its employees at all times. The complete prescribed uniform shall be worn by all employees while on duty and while employed at approved extra-duty assignments, except when civilian clothing is authorized and worn. An exception may be made, by a division commander, to allow part of the uniform to be worn at the training site during training.

PROCEDURES:

1. CLASSES OF UNIFORMS

The following sections outline the authorization for wearing different uniform classes and describe each class.

1.1 STANDARD POLICE UNIFORMS

1.1.1 CLASS A UNIFORM

- a. Long-sleeved uniform shirt.
- b. Department-issued tie.

1. Members with five or more years of service may wear a service award pin as tie tack, which is the only authorized tie tack.

2. Members with less than five years of service shall wear a tie tack similar to the service award pin without the years of service..
- c. Straight-legged uniform pants.
- d. Standard leather or nylon gun belt and equipment. (See Section 6)
- e. Black leather or Corfam shoes.
- f. Black gloves may be worn during cold weather.

The Class A uniform will be designated "with or without" the formal uniform hat with hat badge. The Class A uniform will be worn for formal occasions or when designated by the Chief of Police.

1.1.2 CLASS B UNIFORM

- a. Long-sleeved uniform shirt without issued tie. This uniform shall only be worn in a non-formal capacity. The OPD formal hat shall not be worn with this uniform, OPD ball cap is optional.
- b. Straight-legged uniform pants.
- c. Standard leather or nylon gun belt and equipment. (See Section 6)
- d. Black leather or Corfam shoes.
- e. Black gloves may be worn during cold weather.

The Class B uniform can be worn with or without the ball cap.

1.1.3 CLASS C UNIFORM

- a. Short-sleeved uniform shirt.
- b. Straight-legged uniform pants.
- c. Standard leather or nylon gun belt and equipment. (See Section 6)
- d. Black leather shoes or solid black athletic-type boots or Corfam shoes
- e. Gloves may not be worn with this uniform.

The Class C uniform will be designated "with or without" the ball cap.

1.1.4 PATROLLING UNIFORM

- a. Short-sleeved polo uniform shirt.
 1. Embroidered silver/gold Orlando police badge, with "Police" underneath, left breast.
 2. Embroidered in silver/gold, the officer's/sergeant's name (rank, first initial, last name), right breast.
 3. Standard OPD patches on the left/right sleeve.
 4. Gray/yellow silk-screened "Orlando Police" (minimum 2 ½ " lettering) on the back of the shirt.
- b. Patrolling uniform CrossFX hidden cargo pocket pants.
- c. Standard leather or nylon gun belt and equipment. (See Section 6)
- d. Black leather shoes or solid black athletic-type boots.
- e. OPD ball cap is optional.
- f. The standard OPD jacket shall be worn with the Patrolling uniform, if necessary.

The patrolling uniform shall be worn by sergeants and officers working in a Patrol, SRO, or CSO capacity. Members may wear their issued Patrolling uniform while working extra-duty employment details. This uniform will not be issued to Lieutenants and above.

Members working extra-duty employment at inside details for City Venues and Dr. Philips Performing Arts Center (DPAC) must wear Class A, B, C or Patrolling uniforms. Members shall not wear Special team/unit uniforms unless working in that (responding as patrol, working SWAT) capacity for the event.

1.2 SPECIALTY UNIFORMS

Members assigned to specialty teams or units (Honor Guard, SWAT, ERT, ESU, CNT, Motors, K-9, TAC, Gangs, GET, etc.) shall adhere to uniform standards set in place by their respective Team/Unit Commander. Specific uniform requirements shall be established and maintained in each specialty Team's/Unit's Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) Manual. These standards shall be reviewed regularly and updated any time a change is authorized.

Minimum requirements of silk-screen printed or embroidered shirts shall include:

- a. Embroidered/printed Orlando police badge with "Police" underneath it, left breast (See e.).

The OPD baseball cap may be worn with the approval of the Chief of Police or as follows:

- a. Specialty units.
- b. Patrol whenever the wearing of the formal uniform hat with hat badge is not designated.
- c. Community Service Officers.

Officers engaged in any other activity, not listed above, are strictly prohibited from wearing the baseball cap.

The OPD baseball cap shall be defined as a black baseball cap with the Orlando Police Department shoulder patch emblem on the front. The Orlando Police Department shoulder patch emblem shall be colored when worn with the standard uniform, or subdued when worn by specialty units with subdued uniforms.

5. BODY ARMOR

The wearing of protective body armor is mandatory for all first responders while in police uniform. Officers assigned to a uniformed function are required to wear body armor while engaged in field activities to include on-duty and extra-duty employment unless exempt as follows:

- a. Members involved in an undercover capacity and the wearing of body armor could compromise the officer.
- b. Members of the Honor Guard during an approved detail.
- c. Members of the agency in an administrative role only and are not first responders.
- d. When the agency determines circumstances make it inappropriate to mandate the wearing of body armor at the discretion of the Chief of Police.

If any portion of the body armor is exposed to public view, such as the neck area, that area must be dyed or covered with material to match the Department-approved uniform shirt for that member's section.

Personnel may retain their expired body armor upon being issued new body armor. The expired body armor will only be utilized for training purposes such as SWAT, Active Shooter, ERT, etc.

In order for a member to retain their expired body armor, the employee's supervisor must initiate a memorandum addressed to the Property Supervisor granting authorization for the member to retain their expired body armor. This memo should be accompanied by an endorsement sheet signed by the employee's chain of command (through to the Lieutenant) Both the expired and current issued body armor will be listed on the member's issued equipment inventory. The expired and current body armor will be surrendered to the Quartermaster Unit upon retirement, resignation or when no longer needed.

Please note that under no circumstance, shall expired body armor be used for any purpose other than authorized departmental training.

6. STANDARD GUN BELT AND EQUIPMENT

The standard-issued gun belt and all accessories worn on the belt shall be of smooth black leather or nylon. Snaps and other metal fittings or accessories for the leather gun belt shall be silver in color.

Superior officers, MPOs, and civilian supervisors shall have gold-colored belt buckle and snaps (if applicable) for the leather gun belt.

6.1 INNER BELT

The inner belt shall be the Department-issued smooth black leather belt or web belt.

Other members and CSOs shall have the whistle readily available.

10. BADGES

Badges shall be gold for Honor Guard, superior officers, sergeants, corporals, MPOs, and civilian supervisors. Badges shall be silver for officers and civilians. The badge shall be worn over the outer garment.

A black band shall be worn over the badge for a period of thirty days for the death of employees killed in the line of duty. A black band shall be worn over the badge until the date of the funeral, cremation, memorial service, etc., for other than line-of-duty deaths of active or retired employees. A black band may be worn over the badge at other times as directed by the Chief of Police.

The pin of the badge shall be mounted through the badge carrier, which is sewn into most uniform items.

If the garment does not have a badge carrier, place the badge as follows:

- a. Center the badge between the right and left edges of the left breast pocket, the lower point of the badge shall be 1/2" from the top edge of the pocket.
- b. It is not necessary to place the badge on rainwear or the traffic vest or any outer garment that has an approved embroidered badge.

11. AWARDS

Only awards authorized or awarded by the Department may be worn on the uniform.

Awards shall be worn on the left breast pocket flap of the outermost garment, centered with the top edge parallel to and 3/16 of an inch below the top edge of the pocket.

Ribbons of different classes shall be worn on the same level, to a maximum of three, as follows:

- a. Highest award to the member's right.
- b. Additional rows shall go below the first.
- c. Highest awards on the top row, descending order right to left.
- d. Additional awards in the same class shall be designated by a 3/16" gold star, centered on the ribbon, (e.g., a ribbon with three stars indicates four awards in the same class).
- e. Five awards in the same class: silver star centered on the ribbon.

12. DUTY PINS

Duty pins are insignia that indicates an employee is part of a specialized unit or team.

Duty pins shall be worn only by employees authorized by the specialized unit/team supervisor/commander. May be worn by authorized employees as follows:

- a. Active unit/team members.
